PURPOSE

Use this coaching worksheet to identify managers with a coachable leadership challenge. Leave with a one-page ideal leader profile that can be tested in real, respectful, consent-based work.

WHY THIS MATTERS

Start with sponsor interviews, manager challenges and permissioned programme feedback. Watch for defining every manager as a fit. Review qualified sponsor conversations as a learning signal, not a promised result.

QUICK REFLECTION

Which dimension is the best starting point for this focus: identify managers with a coachable leadership challenge?

DEEP WORK I

Ideal Leader Profile

Use actual evidence. Separate what happened from what you assume it means.

01 / CURRENT PICTURE

01 Review sponsor interviews, manager challenges and permissioned programme feedback. What observed moment shows the need to identify managers with a coachable leadership challenge?

02 What did the leader, colleague or sponsor actually say or do? Record one concrete example.

02 / THE LEVER

03 When you try to identify managers with a coachable leadership challenge, which step breaks down first, and in what context?

04 What assumption are you making that the evidence does not yet support? How could you check it?

03 / PRACTICE & TEST

05 Coach question: Which leader would need support outside your expertise?

06 How could you replace defining every manager as a fit with a fair, specific and testable move?

DEEP WORK II + WORKSHEET

Ideal Leader Profile

Build a usable artifact, then pressure-test it with a real-world scenario.

07 What must a one-page ideal leader profile contain to help the user identify managers with a coachable leadership challenge? Name the first two decisions it supports.

08 Where might defining every manager as a fit show up? How will you notice it and adjust before a colleague or participant is affected?

EVIDENCE AUDIT

Complete five rows while building a one-page ideal leader profile. Use only approved, non-sensitive examples.

03 REHEARSE	Practise the move with a coach or peer and request one correction.
04 TEST	Try it in one relevant, consented team or stakeholder interaction.
05 ADAPT	Review qualified sponsor conversations and change one thing.
